About Me

- I am a passionate web developer and a dedicated Computer Science student from Bahawalpur, Pakistan.
- I am actively learning to code and seeking an entry-level position to start my career in a high level professional environment. I'm building personal projects to strengthen my skills and am currently learning REACT JS.

Experience

Frontend Developer - Student

Codelab IT Solutions Bahawalpur

2024 - present

I don't have formal work experience; however, I've studied as a student and independently built projects to develop my skills.
